

Kongsberger Stampede

Sunday, February 4, 2018

The Kongsberger Stampede is the second of three Kongsberger Ski Club cross-country ski races this winter and the club's oldest race. The Stampede is a fun and approachable race for both new and experienced racers.

(Note: A Children's Freestyle Race is run on the same day at 10:55 am for younger skiers.)

Distances

15k and 5k freestyle (skate or classic) technique races.

Open to all skiers age class U16 (J2) and up (14 years and older)

Start Times

Mass starts, in waves by speed.

15k - first wave 10:00 AM

5k - immediately after last 15k wave

Race cut-off times may be imposed, check on race day.

Location

North side of interchange at Cabin Creek Sno-Park, exit #63 on I-90, 10 miles east of Snoqualmie Pass.

Washington State Parks Sno-Park permit with Grooming Sticker required to park. Season and 1-day permits for purchase online. Racers may use the Kongsberger club cabin and waxing shed on race days.

Race Course

Course is on Kongsberger trail system (trail map) on US Forest Service land, north side of I-90. 15k race is three laps, 5k race is one lap. Course generally follows the Berg-Viking-Boundary loop trails. Check race course map in cabin on race day.

Lodging

Please check back later for Lodging options.

Non-Racing Skiers & Spectators

Non-racing skiers are invited to watch races at the start/lap/finish area or along the trails. However, they should consider skiing at another location on race mornings (eg Lake Easton, Crystal Springs or Hyak) as Cabin Creek parking and trail use will be intensive from 9:00 to noon. As always, dogs are not permitted on groomed trails at Cabin Creek.
