

A reception at Woodland Park Zoo's Historic Rose Garden honoring Debbie Armstrong's 1984 Olympic Gold Medal

Debbie with Seattle Mayor Royer at the Rose Garden in 1984

Debbie Armstrong was honored in 1984 by the Horticulture Section of Seattle Parks and Recreation, the Seattle Rose Society and Joe Marshall with the planting of an Olympiad Rose at Woodland Park Zoo's Historic Rose Garden in recognition of her Gold Medal performance in the 1984 Winter Olympic Games. Seattle Mayor Charles Royer was present at this event to help in honoring Debbie.

YOU ARE CORDIALLY INVITED

to the historic Rose Garden to help celebrate the 30th Anniversary of Debbie's Gold Medal. Former Mayor Royer will honor Debbie by dedicating a bench, a commemorative plaque and Gold Medal Rose bushes surrounding the bench.

Musical entertainment will be provided by Debbie's childhood friend and prominent Seattle harpist Bronn Journey.

Thursday, July 24, 2014

1:00 p.m.

Woodland Park Zoo's Historic Rose Garden
750 North 50th Street, Seattle

